SUPPORT THE

E. J. CAMPBELL STATUE

E. J. Campbell (1887-1935) was a noted African American educator and community leader. His statue will be just east of the Old University Building on Mound Street in the Washington Square Historic District, ensuring a picturesque and elegant background to this sculpture. The E. J. Campbell statue will represent the long, distinguished line of teachers and educators who have lived and worked in Nacogdoches.

"Dream big dreams; then put on your work clothes." - E. J. Campbell
